Parks and Recreation Department to offer a variety of youth and adult programs

Greenville, S.C. – The City of Greenville Parks and Recreation Department announced this week its new summer recreation programming, which features 50 leisure activities and sports for both youth and adult residents and visitors to enjoy. The programs will focus on wellness, education and recreation and will be offered at five of its community centers and several athletic fields and parks.

“Summer is right around the corner, and we have so much to offer families! We are not only offering a dynamic line-up of athletic and recreational programs, but we are also offering various summer camps,” said Pam Davis, Recreation Programs Manager. “We have our traditional Super Summer Day Camp at four of our community centers, but this year, we are also offering a variety of one-week camps from music to fitness to art. We also have new and exciting athletic programs for youth and adults to get involved in!”

Complementing the wide array of existing programs, the summer recreation schedule will feature new programs including Community Youth Baseball, Family Rocks! Kids & Parents Guitar, Craft-E-Teens, Jewelry Making, Shag and Pickleball!
